Tag Rugby Tournament - May 2007

We entered the Tunbridge Wells Schools Tag Rugby Tournament at the beginning of May. After a very successful group stage, we were drawn against Claremont A in the quarter final, the game was very tight and Claremont won by a very small margin. However, we were told that we were the best fair play team, being particularly supportive of each other.

Here are a few shots of the team/supporters in action!

