Book Week 26th February – 2nd March 2007

Each class chose a book from a continent around the world as a focus for their work this week:-

Pippin
- Africa - Giraffes Can Dance by Giles Andreae & Guy Parker-Rees

Galaxy Gala
- Australasia - Wombat Stew by Marcia Vaughan

Bramley
- Asia - Tikki Tikki Tembo by Arlene Mosel

Crispin
- North America - Brother Eagle Sister Sky:A Message from Chief Seattle by Chief Seattle & Susan Jeffers

Russet
- Antarctica -Shipwreck at the Bottom of the World: The Extraordinary True Story of the Shackleton Expedition by Jenifer Armstrong

A number of Literacy, Numeracy, Geography, ICT and Art activities took place along with a whole school book quiz, reading buddies, a book fair and a class swap with Langton Green Primary School for Russet & Galaxy Gala classes.

Here is a glimpse of some the activities from the week, more will follow:-

Galaxy Gala working with Year 6 pupils from Langton Green Primary School making Story Hats

Below are photos of Russet Class visiting Langton Green Primary School to help their Year 1s

