Maypole Dancing
25th June 2010

As part of our `Who do you think you are?' week each class prepared a Maypole dance that was performed in front of the mayor, David Jukes, and his wife as well as invited grandparents. It was a fabulous sunny day and the children performed their routines very well.

