Nativity - 15th January 2010

After several postponements due to the weather, the nativity, "It's a Party", finally took place on Friday 15th January. The children performed brilliantly despite having a long gap since their main rehearsals. Here are a few photos of the production.

