Fun in the Snow - January 2010

Following a sterling effort by staff and parents the school remained open for shortened days during the snowy spell of weather in January. Educational activities were planned and time was also given to enjoy the winter wonderland.